

FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

Preparation date – 22 June 2022

Praescius Financial Holdings Pty Ltd (ABN 14 610 960 980)
("Praescius") is an Australian Financial Services Licensee (AFSL No.486 455). Distribution of this FSG has been authorised by Praescius.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

THE PURPOSE OF THIS GUIDE

The purpose of this Financial Services Guide (FSG) is to help you make an informed decision about the services we and our advisers offer and whether they are suited appropriately to meet your needs. This FSG provides you with important information on how to engage with one of our advisers.

This FSG is divided into two parts: Part 1 – General Information and Part 2 – Representative Profile.

Part 1 covers the following:

- Information about Praescius as a licensee
- Details of the financial services and/or products Praescius can provide
- The documents you may receive
- Remuneration received by us and your adviser
- Other forms of remuneration or benefits
- Privacy (i.e. collection and handling of your personal information)
- The complaints procedure
- Compensation arrangements in place

Part 2 covers:

- Details on how you may instruct us or your adviser
- Who will be responsible for providing the financial services

Throughout this FSG, Praescius is referred to as “we”, “us”, “our” or any variations. The term “adviser” refers to Praescius’ authorised representatives.

WHY WE ARE NOT INDEPENDENT

s923A of the Corporations Act sets out when you can use the term independent or unbiased to describe your business.

There are a few key reasons why we cannot say we are independent.

- i. When we arrange life insurance products for you, or we are listed as your adviser, we will receive commission from the insurer. Details of these commissions are detailed to you in your SOA.
- ii. Our advisers may recommend financial products to you that we have a financial interest in as the issuer of or the manager of the product. Details can be found in this FSG under Related Companies.
- iii. As a licensee we restrict the financial products that can be recommended via an Approved Product List (APL). The APL includes both inhouse and external products and are selected based on a number of quantitative and qualitative factors.
- iv. We may receive financial benefits or gifts, or soft dollar arrangements from other financial services licensees. Details of these can be provided on request.

Welcome

We know how important a trusted financial advice relationship is in providing you with peace of mind and want to thank you for considering an engagement with one of our advisers to assist you in identifying and achieving your needs and financial goals.

We have prepared this guide to provide an overview of our services. Please take the time to review this document before engaging our services.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE STAND FOR

As an Australian Financial Services (AFS) Licence holder, Praescius is a non-institutionally owned financial services company providing services in Accounting & Taxation, Wealth Management and Finance Broking through our offices in Parap (Darwin), NT; Hervey Bay and Bulimba (Brisbane), QLD; and Camden in NSW.

Our mission at Praescius is to assist you in identifying a clear set of goals and objectives so you can plan for your future with confidence. We will also help you to understand the steps required to achieve them and a realistic timeframe for doing so.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO YOU

Your adviser provides financial advice and services on behalf of Praescius and accordingly we are responsible for the financial advice and services they provide.

Our advisers are required to provide this FSG and a Representative Profile to you prior to providing any personalised financial advice, products and/or services. The FSG is a disclosure requirement under the Corporations Act 2001(Cth).

Part 2 – Representative Profile contains important information about your adviser. This includes their Authorised Representative number and/or Corporate Authorised Representative number (if applicable).

It also includes accreditations, qualifications and experience, areas of advice and types of financial services they can provide, details of how they get paid and fees that you may be charged.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

Our advisers are committed to providing quality financial advice and a wide choice of products and/or services to suit individual client circumstances.

Your adviser is obliged by law to act in your best interests and provide appropriate advice when providing financial advice to you. To be in a position to provide effective advice, your adviser will need to determine your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances.

You will be asked to provide accurate information and to keep your adviser updated on any changes to your relevant circumstances to ensure the advice provided and financial products recommended remain relevant to your personal situation. You do have the right not to divulge such information. However, in this case, your adviser will warn you about the possible consequences and how this may impact the quality and reliability of the advice provided. Additionally, your adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they have insufficient information to proceed.

Before providing any financial products and/or services to you, we will need to verify your identity in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/ CTF Act). Your adviser will let you know what documentation you will need to present to allow them to provide you with appropriate advice and to meet the relevant customer identification requirements under the AML/CTF Act.

To ensure that you remain on track to meet your short to long-term needs and objectives, it is vital to periodically review your financial plan. Your adviser will offer a review service appropriate to your circumstances. A fee may be charged for the ongoing advice and management of your financial affairs. Your adviser will provide you with details of any such fees which are applicable to you.

As part of our commitment to you, Praescius adheres to the Codes of Ethics/Conduct of professional associations such as the Financial Planning Association of Australia, the Financial Services Council and the Australian Association of Financial Advisers.

The principles enshrined in the above mentioned Codes serve as a minimum standard for the professional behaviour of our Authorised Representatives, with advisers required, amongst other things, to act in the best interests of clients and to act honestly, efficiently and fairly in the provision of financial services.

FINANCIAL SERVICES AND/OR PRODUCTS WE CAN PROVIDE

Praescius is licensed to provide financial product advice on the following services and/or products including:

- Deposit and Payment Products – Basic Deposit
- Deposit and Payment Products – Non-basic Deposit
- Deposit and Payment Products – Non-cash Payment
- Derivatives
- Government Debentures, Stocks or Bonds
- Life Products – Investment Life Insurance Products
- Life Products – Life Risk Insurance Products
- Managed Discretionary Account Services
- Managed Investment Schemes including Investor Directed Portfolio Services (IDPS)
- Retirement Savings Account Products
- Securities
- Superannuation
- Standard Margin Lending Facilities

Praescius maintains an Approved Product List (APL). Subject to attaining any required accreditation, your adviser is able to recommend any product on the Praescius APL. Your adviser will need to consider products outside of the APL if your Adviser determines that an alternate product is likely to meet your best interests. In these cases, your adviser may apply to Praescius' Research Department to obtain a one-off product approval.

Praescius and its authorised representatives listed are not authorised to provide financial product advice or deal in the following financial products: • General Insurance Products

DOCUMENTS YOU MAY RECEIVE

When your adviser provides personal financial advice to you, you may receive one or more of the following documents:

- Letter of Engagement
- Statement of Advice (SoA)
- Statement of Further Advice (SoFA)
- Record of Advice (RoA)
- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)
- Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS)
- Renewal Notice
- Fee Consent

The SoA will set out the advice that has been tailored to your specific circumstances and provide you with details of all relevant disclosures including details of any remuneration payable.

The SoFA and RoA may be provided in situations where further advice is provided. The SoFA and RoA streamline the documentation process by avoiding unnecessary duplication of information already provided in previous advice documents.

A PDS will be provided if a product recommendation is made and includes detailed information on the financial product, including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable). The issuer of a PDS is required to make publicly available the target market (TMD) for their financial products. Contact Praescius or the issuer if you would like a copy of the TMD.

A FDS will be issued to you in instances where you enter into an Ongoing Fee Arrangement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months. The FDS will contain information about the services you were entitled to receive, the services you actually received and the fees you paid during the period. The FDS will also include a projection of ongoing fees for the next 12 months. Any ongoing fee arrangement will be reconfirmed with you every year.

You may request in writing a copy of any advice document up to seven (7) years after the advice has been given.

If you have any questions about this FSG or the financial advice, investment and/or risk insurance products or services provided, please contact your adviser.

CLIENT SERVICES

Praescius and your adviser may accept your instructions by phone, letter, email or fax. In some instances, only written instructions from you can be accepted and we will let you know when this occurs.

Praescius is required to maintain a physical or electronic record of your personal information, which includes details of your relevant personal and financial circumstances.

We are also required to maintain records of documentation for any financial advice given to you in the course of taking instructions from you, as well as any advice documents your adviser has provided to you. These records are required to be retained for at least seven (7) years.

YOUR PRIVACY

Praescius and your adviser are subject to certain legislative and regulatory requirements that necessitate collecting, holding and using detailed information that personally identifies you and/or contains information about you.

Praescius respects your privacy and is committed to protecting and maintaining the security of the personal and financial information you provide us. If you want to access your personal information at any time, please let us know.

For detailed information on how we handle your personal information, please see our Privacy Policy.

This Policy is located at www.pfinancial.com.au

CROSS-BORDER DISCLOSURE

Praescius may engage third party service providers to assist in the provision of products or services.

Some services may require disclosure of personal information to service providers outside Australia. The purpose of such disclosure is to facilitate the provision of financial services including the preparation of financial advice documents or delivery of digital services for Praescius advisers and clients.

All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that offshore service providers comply with the Privacy Act 1988.

LICENSEE REMUNERATION

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. Generally, whenever your adviser provides a recommendation for a financial product or service, Praescius may be remunerated through either:

- An initial fee for service; or
- An ongoing fee for service; or
- Commission payments from product providers where applicable; or
- A combination of any of the above

AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE REMUNERATION

All fees or commissions are initially paid to Praescius before being distributed in full to the relevant Corporate Authorised Representative. Your adviser is paid via salary and may also be entitled to a bonus based on performance against a balanced scorecard criteria, which may include adherence to service standards, new business, review completion and completion of continuing education.

REFERRALS

Should you be referred to your adviser by a third party, such as an Accountant or Mortgage Broker, the third party may receive a fee for the referral. This fee does not represent an additional cost to you. You will receive more detailed information concerning any referral fee in your SoA or other relevant advice document.

OTHER FORMS OF REMUNERATION OR BENEFITS

Praescius and/or its advisers may receive non-monetary benefits from product providers and other similar parties in specific circumstances such as:

- Where the amount is less than $300 and identical or similar benefits are not given on a frequent basis;
- The benefit has a genuine education or training purpose (including attendance to conferences) and is relevant to providing financial product advice; and/or
- The benefit consists of the provision of information technology software or support and is related to the provision of financial product advice in relation to the financial products issued or sold by the benefit provider.

Payments or benefits received must be disclosed in either a Conflicts of Interest Register or an Alternative Remuneration Register.

A copy of Praescius' Register, is available upon request. If you wish to inspect this Register please ask your adviser or contact us.

MANAGED DISCRETIONARY ACCOUNT SERVICES

Praescius offers Managed Discretionary Account Services through an agreement with clients called a Managed Discretionary Account (MDA) Contract.

By accepting the terms of an MDA Contract you will be granting your adviser an authority to take action on your investment portfolio (e.g., buy or sell investments) without first consulting you.

This will change the nature of the adviser-client relationship.

Normally, your adviser provides you with advice and recommendations supported by research or other information to assist you make an informed decision on those recommendations. Your adviser then implements whatever action you decide to take.

If you accept the terms of an MDA Contract, you will, to some degree depending on the limitations/restrictions detailed in the MDA Contract which are specific instructions on how to deal with various transactions/products, provide your adviser with the authority to make decisions on your investment portfolio and to implement investment transactions without consulting you.

The decision to surrender full or partial control of your investment portfolio to your adviser is an important decision.

You should not accept the terms of a MDA Contract provided by your adviser unless you are confident that he/she has a clear understanding of your circumstances, needs and objectives.

The significant risks of accepting the terms of a MDA Contract provided by your adviser are:

- Your adviser may make investment decisions that you disagree with. Provided your adviser's actions are within the law and the scope of the authority you have granted and the adviser has acted efficiently, honestly and fairly, you will have no right of recourse.

This means that you will have to accept the tax consequences, transaction costs and any capital loss resulting from any transaction validly executed by your adviser and any "reversal" of that transaction that you may request.

- If you do not promptly inform your adviser of any changes in your situation, needs and objectives, there is a risk that your adviser may make inappropriate investment decisions.

You may only accept the terms of an MDA Contract where your investment portfolio is held via a regulated platform such as an investor directed portfolio service (IDPS), IDPS-like scheme, superannuation wrap or master trust.

Praescius uses related parties and external entities to provide some of the functions required to operate the managed discretionary services. These outsourced functions include reporting and custody provided by the regulated platform operators. These providers may vary from time to time. Currently we utilise the services of Macquarie and HUB24.

You must accept the terms of the MDA Contract provided by your adviser before he/she can provide you with MDA services. As part of your MDA Contract, you will be provided with an Investment Program that complies with Division 3 of Part 7.7 of the Corporations Act and that will contain:

- Statements about the nature and scope of the discretions your adviser will be authorised and required to exercise under the MDA Contract and any investment strategy that is to be applied in exercising those discretions;
- Information about any significant risks associated with the MDA Contract;
- The basis upon which your adviser considers the MDA Contract to be suitable for you; and
- Warnings that the MDA Contract:
 - May not be suitable to you if you have provided limited or inaccurate information relating to your relevant personal circumstances;
 - May cease to be suitable if your relevant personal circumstances change.

Your portfolio will be held by the custodian selected by the regulated platform, details of which can be found in the disclosure document provided by the platform operator.

You will receive quarterly and annual reporting from the regulated platform operator detailing any transactions undertaken and their associated costs.

Note that your adviser will exercise, on your behalf, all rights that relate to your portfolio arising from corporate actions and communications about your portfolio assets.

The suitability of the Investment Program that forms part of your MDA Contract to your relevant personal circumstances will be reviewed by your adviser at least once every thirteen (13) months unless terminated earlier by you.

This FSG complies with the relevant requirements of ASIC Corporations (Managed Discretionary Account Services) Instrument 2016/968.

FEES

There are no additional fees charged by Praescius for operating a MDA on your behalf. All fees are set out in the table below and included in your Statement of Advice and your Adviser Service Fee arrangement.

All fees charged by the platform operator such as transaction fees will be included in their disclosure document and detailed in your Statement of Advice.

HOW WE CHARGE FOR OUR SERVICES

All fees and commissions are inclusive of GST and the fees could be greater than those disclosed below in complex cases. In these instances, we will inform you of the exact fee payable promptly in writing.

Initial consultation	First 30 minutes at our expense, thereafter, charged at $165 per hour.
Advice preparation	If we provide you with financial advice the following fees will apply. The fees will depend on the size of the investment portfolio and the complexity of the advice: The minimum fee charged is $550 while the maximum fee is $50,000. For example, complex advice with multiple goals, strategies and/or tax structures including but not limited to; self-managed superannuation funds, family trusts and companies, are likely to be charged closer to the maximum. Less complex advice that addresses limited goals, strategies and tax structures are likely to be charged closer to the minimum.
Implementation (fee for advice)	If you engage us to implement advice the following fees will apply per entity. The fees will depend on the nature and the complexity of the advice: Implementation of Advice is at a minimum of $550 per entity and a maximum of $20,000 per entity. Borrowed funds – if we recommend you acquire investments using borrowed funds then your implementation fee will be a minimum of $550 and a maximum of $20,000.
Ongoing fee for advice	If you elect an ongoing review of your financial planning strategy, the ongoing service fee is based on the complexity of ongoing advice and the services provided.
